

Announcement

07 July 2010

Chief Financial Officer and Joint Company Secretary Resigns

Runge Limited ((ASX:RUL) ("Runge")) has today announced a change to its executive team.

Due to personal reasons, Julia Sloman has resigned as Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary.

Runge's Managing Director, Tony Kinnane said: "Julia has been a strong contributor to the Company during her time as Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary. We will miss her contribution, but understand her decision to prioritise her time on other matters. The Board would like to sincerely thank Julia for her achievements and we wish her well in her future endeavours."

A search for Ms Sloman's successor is underway and Runge will make an announcement in due course.

For further information please contact:

Christian Larsen
Executive Director
+61-7 3100 7200
clarsen@runge.com.au

About Runge Limited:

Runge Limited (Runge) was established in 1977 by Dr Ian Runge and listed on the Australian Securities Exchange on 27 May 2008 (ASX code: RUL).

Runge is a leader in the provision of technology products, consulting services and training courses to the global mining industry, delivering solutions and services across a range of commodities.

With expertise across a range of mining disciplines, Runge's approach to the business of mining is strongly grounded in economic principles and delivering mine planning solutions that are tightly coupled with technological support and training. Runge currently owns and operates 19 offices in 12 countries throughout the world. Our team includes Pincock Allen & Holt, Minarco-MineConsult, MRM Mining Services Pty Ltd and GeoGAS Pty Ltd.